- Is likely to make a financial gain, or avoid a financial loss, at the expense of the client;
- Has a financial interest in the outcome of a service provided to the client or of a transaction carried out on behalf of the client, which is distinct from the client's interest in that outcome;
Has a financial or other incentive to favor the interest of another client, group of clients or any other third party over the interests of the client;
- Receives or will receive from a person other than the client, an inducement in relation to a service provided to the client in the form of monies, goods or services, other than the legislated commission or reasonable fee for that service.
